

Shelby County Law Enforcement Personnel Board
Regular Meeting
January 25, 2018, 4:00 p.m.

Secretary Bill Martin called the meeting to order at the County Services Building in Pelham. Mr. Mitchell offered the invocation.

Board members and staff present were Mr. Martin, Mr. Brasher, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Donaldson, and secretary Lucy Womac. Guests present were Chief Deputy Chris George and Mr. Brasher's nephew Ricky Jackson.

Mr. Mitchell moved to approve the minutes of the December 13 regular meeting and January 22 special meeting, with changes. Mr. Brasher seconded the motion and it carried.

OLD BUSINESS

The LEPB's monthly budget from Commission Accounting was discussed. The carry-over from last year was now included in the Other Professional Services line.

NEW BUSINESS

Betsy King, Admin Assistant II, is dealing with the Serious Health Condition of a family member. She has exhausted all sick leave benefits and was wondering what options may be available to her. The members discussed the issue at length. Based on current rules, RSLB was not an option. It was suggested that Mrs. King should inquire if employees may be willing to donate time. The Board asked that Mrs. King review these options, and they will follow up at the next scheduled meeting.

The Board reviewed three transcripts for educational incentives:

- Deputy Ryan A. Gibson, masters of justice administration from Faulkner University.
- Admin Assistant I Bridget D. Kennedy, bachelor of criminal justice from Faulkner.
- Deputy Michael Cooper, associate of science in business administration from Colorado Technical University.

Mr. Mitchell moved to grant all three incentives. Mr. Martin seconded; the motion passed.

With no further business, the meeting was adjourned by motion of Mr. Mitchell.

Minutes approved by:

Randall W. Donaldson, Board Chairman

Bill M. Martin, Board Secretary

Teddy R. Brasher
